

Although the "donotcall" legislation is not working 100% it is a very good deterrent from the annoying late evening telephone calls, or calls that fill our message machine with advertising calls I do not want. To rescind or modify this legislation would be a gross error. In my opinion it should be strengthened and rigidly enforced. Thank you